SPORTING.

Hongkong Tennis League.

Only one of the four League matches fixed for Saturday was commenced, and even this one was not played to a finish owing to the failing light. The Clubs were Lusitano and Talkoo, and at the conclusion of play the games stood :- Lusitano, 39 Taikoo, 38. This leaves 22 games yet to be played; they will be fought out some. time during the week.

Lawn Bowls.

COMMODOLINAN DOCK v. POLICE.

Apele from advertising, and perhape lesson in style what do professional matof the game of golf? Would he no Loosle gong building well without seeing & Braided Taylor, or a Vardon Probably so with the nover ending possibilities of the the breezes of spring or a beautiful ummor day, is not the least healthquest pleasant way of killing the time. Indeed it is the manner in which the old enemy is so effectively laid low that has given golf premier place as the great holiday making sport in Scotland. Vardon has won the second of the profeedional Scottish golf tournaments,tournament organised by the tradesmen of St. Andrews in direct opposition to the sentiment and wishes of the Royal sent Ancient. He showed that his eye hall had become dim nor his knack of driving "gale. hasteners " absted, when in successive rounds he best such sound players Wilfred Reid and Herd by an average of over four holes.

THE INTERNATIONAL MATCH. The "Amazing" Budget, with its whisty and tobacco tares in the forefront, is, of course, the question of the day; the General Assembles, with their approaches owards co-operation, are by general assent marking a turning point in ecclesiastica politics; but the petrified truth is, that for the great majority of the Scottish people the real matter of importance just now is golf and nothing but golf. The disease breaks forth with every spring, but the epidemic is unusually severe during this present month of May, for the Breakon that It is the turn of Muirfield (of the Honourable Company of Edinburgh Golfers) to be the scene of the International and the Amateur Championships. It was the eight International between English and Scottish players, and the record of past games gave Scotland six wins and one loss. The defolt was sustained at Muirfield in 1903, England winning on that occasion by one match in point of fact by a putt on the last green. Once more Bootland has triumphedir and that, too, by a substantial majority seven matches to two. Scotland has thus ONLY FIRST-CLASS WINES now seven wins. in the maket, Mr Maxwell's play was great. Such approaching and putting have rarely, if ever, been seen paytherground. H. E. Daunt, Kobe. The first round was notable for the disappearance of Mr Travers, the American he went down with unexpected softness before a St. Andrew's golfer hitherto unknown to fame. In 1904 this champion ship was gained by an American, and although we did not want the honour to cross the Atlantic once more, yet there was disappointment at Mr Travers early defeat. In the second found, Mr Dannt of Kobe, 1489 Japan, met defeat. Mr D. A. M. Brown, Penang, lasted to take part in the fifth

> Of the eight players who survived the sixth round, seven were Scotsmen; there was only one Englishman, Mr Darwin o Wolcing. The survivals of the fittest among the Sociemen were Captain Hutchison, Mr John Graham, Mr R. Andrew, Mr Norman F. Hunter, Mr Robert Maxwell. bably if poets got pensions they would be lazy and not write. I venture, in the case of a society like ours and a paper like The Spectator to call the remark check. The society in which we live and of which The Spectator is so solid and placid a prop, may be said, without exaggeration, to be based on the idea that men with migch money can trusted to work well. That is the whole defense, and the only defense, of our oligarchy, of the vast salaries and the vost estates. That it was all worked out very deverly is shown from the fact that they brought the amount paid to within $10,000 of what I call the true value. It is the usual case, so common in cases which come before this court, of an attempt to build mountains out of the materials of mole-hills, to make a little do the work of much, or what is popularly known as the "inverted pyramid." In this case the apox was $60,000 in cash and it true that it was sufficiently substantial to have kept the pyramid in unstable equilibrium for some time, but the fact that this substantial sum formed the apex of the pyramid cannot invest the other main fact with a virtue it does not possess. Mesars Lamke and Rogge in their freight circular dated Saturday, 26th June state :-There is no improvement in coast freights supply, rates could not rise and in some instances have even further weakened. In the direction Saigon to Houghorig there is absolutely no sign of a reswakening of demand. One fixture has taken place on basis of 9 cents per picul. It is impossible to say whether and to what degree there will be any appreciable demand and an advance in the rate during the remaining part of the season, but what with comparatively high. rates ranging from 23.1/2 to 24 cents per picul. of At the close there is seems no disposition on the part of charterers. to make further engagements. Again nothing has been doing in the shape of chartering from Saigon to other destinations. There is no room for outsiders from Bangkok to this port, the cargoes being exclusively carried by the North German Lloyd boats and those of the new competition; the Chinese Siamese S.S. Co. The latter concern appear to have every confidence in the spaces of their venture. as they have just engaged for the term of. 12 months another steamer in addition to the six now employed, and there are rumours effect that the fleet will be further] increased From Hollo to Moji (sugar) wo charter is said to have been arranged, terms being kept private. No chartering has come to pass yet from Java to Hongkong or Japan . The season is reported to he belated through heavy came; and normal, exports will not start until a few weeks hence. WEATHER REPORT. The fellowing notice is issued from the Hongkong Observatory :--On the 26th at 12.05 p.m.—The barometer has rison in S. Japan the depression lying over that area yesterday, having passed to the Pacific.

The Manchuria depression has moved into the N. part of the Sea of Japan. Pressure has given way quickly over China owing to the appearance of a depression over the Yangtzo Valley. It appears to be moving towards N.E.

The highest pressure is shown over the S. part of the China Sea and the Pacific to the Eastward of the Philippines.

Strong S. W. winds may be expected i the Formosa Channel, and along the
